

CHECK POINT CONSUMER EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

Laura Yecies, General Manager of Check Point's Consumer and Small Business division, is an Internet industry veteran with nearly two decades of experience leading top consumer brands such as Yahoo! and Netscape.

Yecies is responsible for strategic planning, business development, marketing, e-commerce, and product development. Since joining the company in June 2005, Yecies has led new expansion initiatives to drive ZoneAlarm's technology leadership, sales, and brand awareness.

At Yahoo!, Yecies generated significant growth as General Manager of the Yahoo! Mail division, where she also successfully integrated new anti-spam technologies to relieve the pain of unwanted email for millions of users worldwide. As a key contributor in the early days at Netscape, she led the worldwide product management group. After the America Online acquisition, Yecies served as Vice President of the Netscape browser division at AOL.

Yecies received an M.B.A. from Harvard and M.S.F.S. from Georgetown School of Foreign Service where she graduated with honors in International Business Diplomacy. She received her A.B. Magna Cum Laude in Government from Dartmouth and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She has been on staff as a lecturer for International Marketing at Santa Clara University, and serves on the Board of several community non-profit organizations. She has lived in Brazil, Venezuela, England and France and is fluent in Portuguese, Spanish, and French.

John Gable, Director of Consumer Product Management and Product Marketing, drives the development of the ZoneAlarm brand of Internet security solutions. He has extensive technology experience spanning product management, marketing and entrepreneurship. Gable founded two Internet companies, Stearns Ventures, a technology investment firm, and Kavi Corporation, a Web-based solutions company.

Additionally, he has held leadership positions at Netscape, AOL Time Warner, Now Software and Microsoft. Gable has also published articles for various issues including the Microsoft Anti-Trust suit, has been appointed or elected to various political positions including a delegate to the 2004 National Convention and member of the San Mateo Central Committee, and currently serves on the boards of Lead 21, the Lincoln Club of Northern California, and TE 21, Training and Education in the 21st Century.

Gable holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from Duke University and a Bachelor's of Arts degree from Vanderbilt University.
